Pentecost 2

Trinity Sunday

Gospel

I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

John 16:12-15

For prayer & reflection...

The whole story of creation, incarnation and our incorporation into Christ's body tells us that God desires us, as if we were God, as if we were that unconditional response to God's giving that God's self makes in the life of the Trinity. We are created so that we may be caught up in this, so that we may grow into the wholehearted love of God by learning that God loves us as God loves God.

This Week at Seacliff

Women's Evening Fellowship

7.30pm Wed 25th May

What's News

Women's Evening Fellowship.

Our meeting on Wednesday, next, 25th May, is to be a Guest Speaker from COTA and he will be speaking on “Moving Right Along”. We hope all can be there and the Yellow Group are on duty. Thank you Von.

Packing Day,

We only have two more weeks to collect for Packing Day. The list of needs is on the Notice Board. Donations can be given to Von at church or delivered to her place which is at 2 Lynton Ave. Nth Brighton. Or she will pick up goods if you wish. Her phone no. is 8296 6790.

COGS AND COFFEE

Last Wednesday four regulars rode to Outer Harbour, then took the train to Brompton, before again mounting the saddle to ride through the West Parklands then back home alongside the Seaford line. This was a riding distance of about 55Km riding depending on where riders started. The ride was very pleasant and easy.

Next Wednesday we will meet at the Hallett Cove station at 9.22 am for a ride via Reynella to Seaford. New riders always welcome. Please direct enquiries to Warwick on 8296 5357 or 0403 226 006.

Long-weekend Stall

As well as the Book Sale on the Long-weekend in June, the Day Fellowship ladies will hold a “Nick-nack” Stall to raise funds, on the Saturday.. They will also have a few cakes etc. as well. If you can help these ladies in any way with donations of food or small nick-nacks this would be appreciated. Any queries can be directed to Von or Rosemary

MOVIEMATES

The film chosen by Warwick(Smith) for our outing last Tuesday was Florence Foster Jenkins, a poignant, funny film of a Pennsylvanian and very rich socialite who lived for music and supported every facet of music during the earlier part of the twentieth century.

She was an amateur singer who had no sense of rhythm, tempo and whose diction was an aberration. Her voice shattered glass! The film culminated in her grand concert in Carnegie Hall which she had hired for the night,

Jenkins was played by Meryl Streep at the top of her game, her husband by a very competent Hugh Grant(forget Four Weddings and a Funeral) and Jenkins's accompanist Cosme McMoon played beautifully by Simon Helbert (Big Bang Theory)

!7 Moviemates attended and we agreed it was a good choice.

Richard.

Beyond Seacliff

Rev Clarrie Hore celebrated his 100th birthday on Tuesday 10 May this year – making him the oldest living Uniting Church minister in South Australia. Clarrie began training at Wesley College in March 1945. Starting in 1947, Clarrie spent time in roles at Kingscote, Glanville and Wudinna. He was ordained on 8 March 1950 and appointed to Cleve. Over the next 32 years, Clarrie held positions at churches located across South Australia – Summertown, Woodville Gardens, Ferryden Park, Campbelltown, Williamstown, Gawler River, Gawler West, Burra, Maitland, and finally, Highbury Street in Prospect.

“We give thanks to God for Clarrie’s gracious and faithful lifelong service to Christ and the church. We pray God’s blessing on Clarrie as he celebrates his 100 years with his family and friends!”

Welcome to our Church.

There are a few things you need to know especially if you are a visitor.

Fire exits are marked. Please take note. In the case of an emergency evacuation please gather on the Western Lawns under the Pine Tree.

St John First Aid Kit - on top of the pigeon holes up from the ramp.

Toilets are available through the door front right of the Worship Area or out through the turn around point on the ramp.

Morning tea is held after the service – we hope you will join with us.

Children normally leave for the children's programme after the children's talk during the Service. More information is available from the Steward's Table and displays scattered around "The Middle Hall".
