A CREED

I trust in whom I believe,
I love whom I trust,
I trust whom I worship,
I worship the Holy One

who is Most Beautiful in the eyes of my soul.

I believe in Jesus of Nazareth,
I love his word and his way,
I trust in the reconciling cross,

I worship the exquisite Beauty reflected in him.

I believe I am never alone,
I love the Holy Friend,
I trust in the Spirit of Truth,

I worship the Beauty of the Inner Light.

I believe I am a child of God,
I love the family of God,
I trust the way of service,

I worship the beautiful God who serves beside us.

I trust in whom I believe,
I love whom I trust,
I trust whom I worship,
I worship the Holy One

who is most beautiful in the eyes of my soul.

Amen!

COGS AND COFFEE

On a beautiful first day of winter, 10 riders ventured out to ride the Coast to Vines trail from Hallett Cove to Seaford. There was plenty of huffing and puffing as we made our way to Reynella.

After that there were not too many complaints. Coffee was at the Seaford shopping centre before catching the train home.

Next weeks ride is the continuation of the Coast to Vines trail this time catching the first train after nine from our local station and then riding from Seaford to Willunga for a coffee.

All welcome, no matter your experience.

Brian

Beyond Seacliff

A story from Paul Glazbrook, Parkin-Sturt Remote Ministry Patrol Pastor - From UC e-news

Over the last 15 days I've covered over 2,800 kilometres. I visited stations east of the Stuart Highway for the first time, others west of Coober Pedy for their annual visit, then down through the Gawler Rangers, concluding at the Nonning Gymkhana.

The scriptures found in John 3:16-17 were sustaining to me as I travelled this trip; many times those verses came to mind as I found myself talking with folk.

We have never seen or spoken to so many people on a patrol as we did this trip. It was truly the “People's Patrol”. As the sun set on this patrol, it ended by sharing a service at the Wudinna Uniting Church. The church at Wudinna is a beautiful picture of the “bride of Christ” working together as one –not in a one-off way, but every day. The three churches within this town – Anglican, Lutheran and Uniting – join together each Sunday for worship. They focus on the core values of Biblical truth, leaving the minor divisive issues alone.

At the service, I shared what our God is doing through Frontier Services and then spoke on God's Word. What a way to end this patrol!
