Gospel

Jesus said, "Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" The lawyer said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Luke 10:36-37

THE SAMARITAN

As I was coming home through life
some muggers hit me hard,
they stripped me of the things most dear
and left me by the road.

A news crew found me all bloodied,
the cameras zoomed in near;
"That's great TV" a fat man said,
and left me lying there.

A Senator saw the film crew
and spied me in the ditch:
"Of course we'd like to help" he said,
"but budgets will not stretch."

A young preacher came down that way and knelt to succour me.

The muggers moved in mercilessly and hanged him on a tree. © B. D. Prewer. Used by permission

Prayers in the shadow of violence in our world

Uniting Church SA Moderator Dr Deidre Palmer offers a reflection on acts of recent violence in Turkey and other places.

We long for a world of peace with justice, reconciliation and hope. A world where our relationships are built on love, compassion, understanding, and nonviolent resolutions of our conflict.

Most people want to live at peace with their neighbours.

We pray for peace:

Christ Jesus,

We pray for peace and courage to resist all those forces that would lead us to hatred and violence.

We pray for comfort for those who have lost family and friends in the recent killings.

We pray for all those whose lives have been changed by the trauma of the attacks, and the disruption of their daily lives.

We pray that we will see and respond to others through your eyes – as people of worth, created in God's image and deeply loved.

May we be peacemakers with you, bringing hope and light to our world.

In your name, we pray. Amen.
