Gospel

Martha was distracted by her many tasks; so she came to him and asked, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her then to help me."

Luke 10:40

For prayer & reflection...

Christ says: "This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you" (John 15:12).

We need silence in order to welcome these words and put them into practice. When we are agitated and restless, we have so many arguments and reasons not to forgive and not to love too easily. But when we "have calmed and quieted our soul", these reasons turn out to be quite insignificant.

Maybe we sometimes avoid silence, preferring whatever noise, words or distraction, because inner peace is a risky thing: it makes us empty and poor, disintegrates bitterness and leads us to the gift of ourselves.

Silent and poor, our hearts are overwhelmed by the Holy Spirit, filled with an unconditional love. Silence is a humble yet secure path to loving.

Cogs "n" Coffee

After the riders arrived at Glenelg last Wednesday, we decided it was too blustery along the coast for a pleasant ride so we changed our minds and headed inland. Our journey took us past the new Obahn extensions and on to the Dear Daisy coffee shop. After last week, the riders decided they would like to go back there for the coffee break, this time we were inside and very pleasant. We all agreed it was a good decision to re-arrange our riding destination.

Next weeks ride we will try for the Palais at Semaphore again.
