

Uniting Church in Australia
SEACLIFF WEEKLY NEWS
Sunday 21 August 2016
Pentecost 14

¹⁰ On a Sabbath Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues, ¹¹ and a woman was there who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. ¹² When Jesus saw her, he called her forward and said to her, “Woman, you are set free from your infirmity.” ¹³ Then he put his hands on her, and immediately she straightened up and praised God. Luke 10: 10-13.

For prayer and reflection...

for ourselves, for our faith community, for our church, for our world.

Compassionate God, open our hearts

that we may feel the breath and play of your spirit,

unclench our hearts

that we may reach out to one another in openness and generosity,

free our lips

that we may speak for those whose voices are not heard,

unlock our ears

to hear the cries of the broken-hearted,

and open our eyes

to see Christ in friend and stranger, that in sharing our love and our pain, our poverty and our prosperity,

we may move towards that peace and justice

which comes from you and so be bearers of divine reconciliation. Amen.

This Week at Seacliff

Women's Evening Fellowship 7.30pm Wed. 24th August

What's News

Women's Evening Fellowship

7.30pm Wednesday, 24th August. The topic for this meeting is Life Stories – Who are you? Duty Group: Green.

Cogs "n" Coffee.

Nine riders experienced a lovely sunny ride with no wind to the Palais at Semaphore for our coffee, what a superb morning it was. A couple of riders managed to spy the train at Grange as we were heading home and had a new experience of travelling on that train, and avoiding the ride the rest of the way home. There are always those in our midst looking for the easy option, which at times is understandable.

Next weeks ride is to Willunga, catching the 9.00am train from Seacliff.

Indigenous spirituality to enrich and transform the Pilgrimage of Justice and Peace

At a time when Indigenous communities worldwide struggle for recognition, survival and the right to exist as distinct and self-determined peoples, the World Council of Churches (WCC) convenes a consultation on Indigenous Spirituality and Theology, in Darwin. The consultation, which takes place on 27-31 August, is on the theme of "Pilgrimage of Justice and Peace: Shaping Landscapes of Hope Together". Hosted by the Nungalinga Ecumenical Theological College, and is the first in a series bringing together Indigenous theologians from around the world.. The series also aims to inspire and strengthen the building of ecumenical networks among Indigenous peoples, regionally as well as globally.

Welcome to our Church.

There are a few things you need to know especially if you are a visitor.

Fire exits are marked. Please take note. In the case of an emergency evacuation please gather on the Western Lawns under the Pine Tree.

St John First Aid Kit - on top of the pigeon holes up from the ramp.

Toilets are available through the door front right of the Worship Area or out through the turn around point on the ramp.

Morning tea is held after the service – we hope you will join with us.

Children normally leave for the children's programme after the children's talk during the Service. More information is available from the Steward's Table and displays scattered around "The Middle Hall".
