Gospel

There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus.

Luke 16:19-20

For reflection...

The plight of those who suffer in the world today is a modern-day Calvary that “spurs us on to offer ever new signs of mercy,” Pope Francis said recently “I will never tire of saying that the mercy of God is not some beautiful idea but rather a concrete action,” Pope Francis said. “There is no mercy without concreteness. Mercy is not doing something good while passing by; it means involving yourself there where there is evil, where there is sickness, where there is hunger, where there is human exploitation.”

What's News

WOMENS EVENING FELLOWSHIP.

Our meeting on Wednesday, 28th September at 7:30 pm., is "Here Comes the Bride" night and for this it would be great if you can bring along any wedding paraphernalia you may have, e.g. wedding frock (wear it if you can), bridesmaid attire, headdresses, veils etc.. Photos would be great, too, so we can share them around during the evening. Also we would love to hear any "stories" you may have about yours or a friend's wedding.

These can be serious or amusing. Blue group is on duty. Any visitors who would like to join us for this reminiscing evening will be welcome. Von

.Cogs "n" Coffee

This past weeks ride took in a new section for a couple of our riders who had never ventured through the West End Cemetery. It's great the A.C. council have seen fit to have a bike track meander through the graves. It was then onto Market on Maxwells for a well deserved coffee. As Heather said, a very pleasant ride, on what was a cool day and well done to Bruce who kept everyone in order.

Meet a Wattle Reserve next week at 8.30am for a ride Nth along the coast, perhaps a coffee at the Palais and then choose the way we want to come home. Brian

Movie Mates Report

The selection of the film 'Sully' proved to be very popular with 23 people turning up (believed to be equal to the previous record). It was an interesting and enjoyable movie – as was the coffee and discussion afterwards.
