Gospel

Jesus answered, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me. "

Matthew 11:4-6

For prayer and reflection...

Our search for God and our service to others will never be conducted in a neat world. Life will never submit to our good intentions, will never fall in line, will never stand still long enough to do our bidding. Life will never cease to be a messy affair, and our spiritual journey will never be reduced to a tidying-up operation. God and the others don't wait to enter our life until we have put it all in order.

Our journey ... is about finding God and serving others in the midst of the mess. The messiest place of all will be our own soul, our own life, which, despite our best efforts, will insist on remaining human. And it is into this mess, this confusion, that God and others will invite themselves.

KCO 2017 - join the team!

KCO (Kids Camp Out) is looking for adults of any age, including church ministry teams, who would like to volunteer their time and gifts to enable KCO 2017 in Victor Harbor to be an amazing mountain-top experience for kids. Are you or someone you know interested in helping with:

- administration
- security
- traffic management
- "Create" activities
- "Play" activities
- games
- worship dramas
- interactive Bible studies
- event logistics
- or being a crew member assisting in various ways across the program? People who do not have children in their congregation are also encouraged to get involved in the event! Why not get a group of people from your church, or a group of your friends, to run an activity or assist in some other way?

Welcome to our Church.

There are a few things you need to know especially if you are a visitor.

Fire exits are marked. Please take note. In the case of an emergency evacuation please gather on the Western Lawns under the Pine Tree.

St John First Aid Kit - on top of the pigeon holes up from the ramp.

Toilets are available through the door front right of the Worship Area or out through the turn around point on the ramp.

Morning tea is held after the service – we hope you will join with us. Children normally leave for the children's programme after the children's talk during the Service. More information is available from the Steward's Table and displays scattered around "The Middle Hall".
