Gospel

If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them. Matthew 18:15-20

For prayer and action ...

In any real and purposeful dialogue – it does not take long for us to be in touch with our deep fear of otherness and difference. Too often we think that such difference – such otherness – threatens communion. But the communion which we seek and which seeks us knows that otherness and difference is not a threat to communion – but its very essence. The mystery of God – which we reflect – lies in the fact that otherness and communion are not contradictory but coincide. John Zizioulas, cited in God as Communion, Patricia Fox RSM

2017 ANNUAL PROJECT REPORT.

Unfortunately, our project to aid Geoff Craven in his work with Aboriginal Communities has been affected by the withdrawal of Government money and he now is only involved at Port Augusta so our plans for Pt Pearce cannot go ahead.

As money has already been raised for the Project we would like to continue the support of Geoff's work at Pt Augusta but at this time we have not planned the most appropriate way to do this. Further information will be given when we know it.

Meanwhile, we encourage you to continue with the second part of the Project which is supporting Brighton Community Care with their work by donating grocery (non perishable) items to struggling families in our community. We have a LARGE box in our kitchen here at Seacliff which we would like to see filled on a regular basis. Their needs are tinned foods, cereals, toiletry goods, etc. Please can you help by bringing along goods from time to time to help in this effort. Thank you,

Von and John
