SEACLIFF WEEKLY NEWS
Sunday 15 July 2018
PENTECOST 8

Our Scriptures

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, just as he chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world to be holy and blameless before him in love. Ephesians 1:3-4

For prayer and action...

With whom can we share these words of blessing and love? Is there someone from a neighbouring church that we could offer them to? Or even think of them as blessing and love?

What word of thanks might we share with God... 'who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing...'?

What's News

Today a farewell for the Hadsdak family: an invitation to stay for morning tea, to thank them for their contribution to our life here over the last 12 months or so. We pray God's richest blessings on them as they return home and take up the new life there that is Tarcisus' vision.

Next week a welcome, as we receive through baptism a new family member for one of our people.

In a fortnight, another farewell: July 29th is Peter and Lyn's last day with us. Arrangements are well under way, and will be published again next week.

The longer term

Just a reminder that we need people (a) to represent us at gatherings of our Mission Network [4 per year], (b) to help with B-Team visiting, (c) to look after the provision of an activity for any children who might be present on a Sunday morning. Please talk to Max or Peter if you are able to respond to any of these.

Winter Appeal – helping others one stitch at a time

Twenty knitted blankets are on their way to bringing warmth to people in need, thanks to the skill and generosity of a group of residents at Westminster Village Aged Care. Every Tuesday the residents gather to knit colourful squares, which are lovingly crocheted together to create blankets for UnitingSA's Emergency Relief centre.

Donations made to UnitingSA during winter go straight towards the UnitingSA's Winter Appeal, which supports almost 1500 people who require emergency relief such as, people who are homeless, at risk of becoming homeless, and those in financial hardship.

“There are people who are sleeping in their car or transitioning from homelessness to home,” says Cindy, the anti-poverty team leader for UnitingSA, “these blankets will go to help those people. Children, in particular, love the colours and it really brightens their day.”

Donations such as these can be brought to the UnitingSA's Emergency Relief Centre at 58 Dale St, Port Adelaide, between 9:00 am and 1:30 pm, Monday to Friday.
