COVID Safe Marshals - Reminder

The South Australian Government now requires all churches have a COVID Marshal on duty identified by wearing a hi viz vest during Worship Services and possibly other church activities. The Marshal will support our congregation with infection control and social distancing during the Worship Service and Morning Cuppa. Thank you for your understanding with this new regulation.

Church Council News

Church Council members will host a Frontier Services 'Great Outback BBQ' to support our Aussie Farmers who are doing it tough after the devastating natural disasters which have affected farmers all over the country. Frontier Services are keen to support the rebuilding of those communities damaged by fires, drought, and floods. The 'Great Outback BBQ' will be held at the Church on October 31 in conjunction with the Church Fete.

Please contact Annette if you would be willing to help with our sausage sizzle on the day.
