JOHN 3: 16-17

¹⁶ For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

¹⁷ For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

What's News

A BIG Thankyou

There have been many expressions of appreciation for all the work that went in to making the Centenary Weekend the success it was. I would simply like to add mine. There was a tremendous amount of work done by many people and it resulted in a wonderful weekend of celebration and thanksgiving.

Gary Stuckey

Discovering Meditation

The Discovering Meditation program begins this week. Details of the program can be found in past Newsletters and in the latest edition of Outlook. If you would like to attend and have not yet done so please let me (Gary) know ASAP of your intention to be a part of it. (I have material to hand out and I just want to know how many copies to have.)

I have been meditating for over 30 and can attest to its benefits for our overall well-being- body, mind and spirit.

Centenary celebrations

A huge thank you to everybody involved in preparing, leading and helping with last weekend's events. Mention was made on Sunday of the planning committee, but we should also remember the small army of people who delivered our lunch from kitchen to table, Arthur for the PA and video services, the many who helped clear things away at the end so that the hall was ready for use by our tenants, and the team who provided PA, music and welcome in the morning.

We have had a number of expressions of gratitude from invited guests, who were delighted to be able to catch up with old friends, swap stories and see how Seacliff continues to grow and develop. Oh - and discover unknown shared family ancestry. Yes, we had our own "That's Adelaide for you" moment!!

Thanks again to everyone.

Max.

Take Us 2 - Tonight - 30 May

Come with Alan and Flora Botting as they explore England, Wales and Scotland by motor home. See the beautiful autumn leaves of The Scottish Highlands, The Lakes District and The Brecon Beacons, London, Oxford, Windsor, York, Edinburgh, Aberdeen. A 6.30pm start with a light dinner provided. Alan

Centenary Publications

Just a reminder please that today is the deadline for:

1. Any corrections to draft 'Stories' that I have given you or possibly new 'Stories' for the Book that you have mentioned to me.
2. Any further orders/payments for the Book and/or USB. Yellow forms will be on the tables.

Expected publication and distribution will be late-June.

Disaster and Recovery Ministries Training Days

On Tuesday 22nd and Wednesday 23rd June Seacliff Uniting Church congregation are hosting training sessions arranged by the Disaster and Recovery Ministries who train and coordinate teams of people to provide pastoral and spiritual support to disaster-affected people.

Volunteers are required to provide refreshments, including a light luncheon, for participants involved in the training sessions. If you can support or help with the catering on these 2 training days please contact Annette (0438664100)

Cogs n' Coffee

Wednesday ride covered some new trails and also a different coffee shop opposite the Woodville Park train station.

Cogs n Coffee will do the Pt. Elliot to Bluff ride on the 9th June with lunch at the Boulevard cafe. Welcome to Gary Matiner who joined us for his first ride.

Next weeks ride, meet at the Warradale Shops at 8.30am.
